

Stephen Martin(Keith)-Stephen has been in four productions at the Fort Smith Little Theatre (20th Century, Gaslight, A Trip To Bountiful, & Web of Murder)and must really love it because he keeps coming back for more. "This production is probably my favorite so far. Everyone who comes to see it will love it."

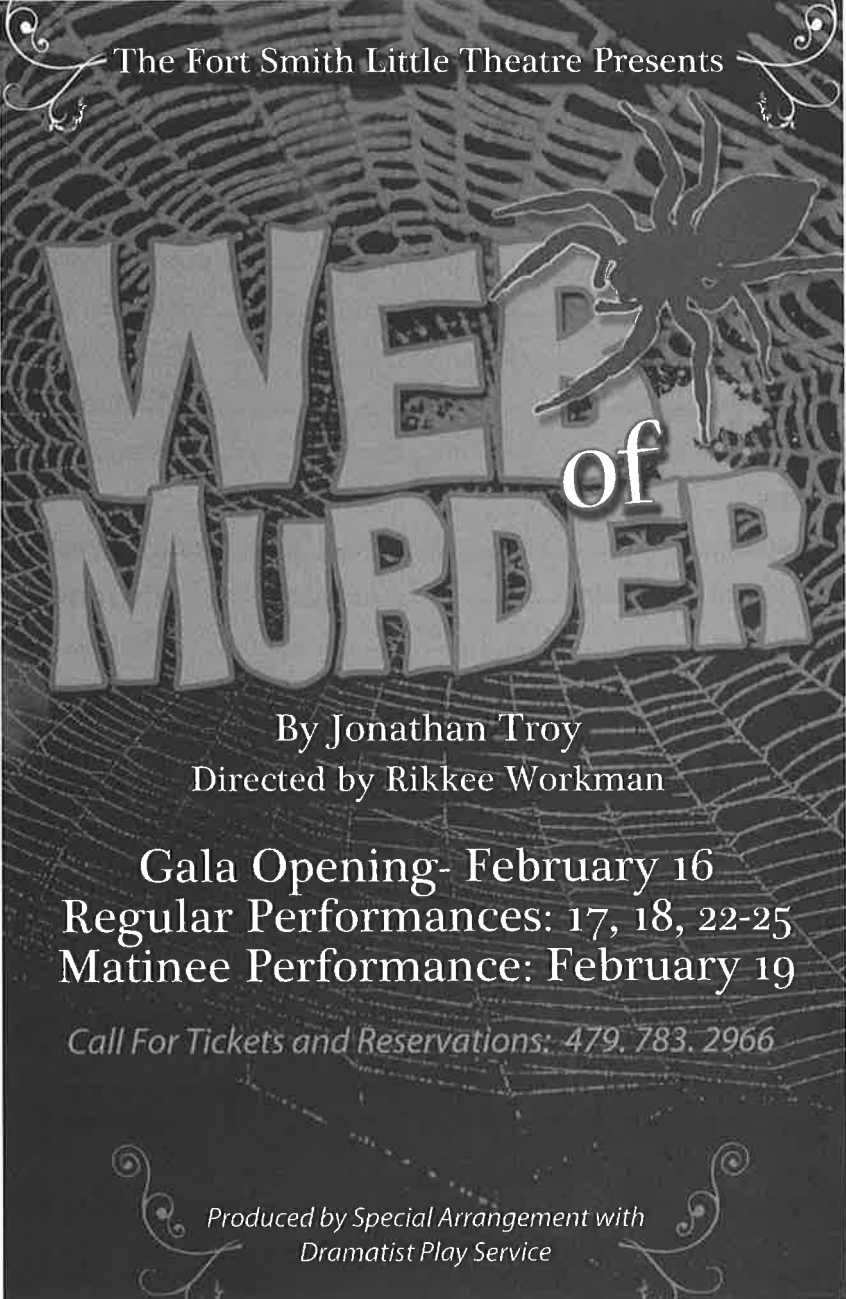

Terry Dilley (Pete)-While always wanting to become involved in theatre, Terry's work schedule and other commitments wouldn't allow it. After finally finding time, he took the plunge and auditioned for the first time for Web of Murder. Now being cast in his first play, Terry makes his acting debut as Pete Martinelli in FSLT's Web of Murder. "Thank you Rikkee & Theresa for giving me a chance. Thank you to my wife Stacy and my kids, McKeehan, Zoë & Stricklyn for encouraging me and allowing me to pursue this."

Richard C. "Dick" Suits (Dr. Adler)-Ever since appearing as an extra in "The Byrd's Christmas Carol" in the eighth grade in Queens Village, New York, Dick has wanted to appear on the stage. Only a lack of talent and extreme stage fright has prevented him from doing so. Ten years of Toastmaster training has helped him overcome his reluctance to speak before an audience, and five years as a member of The Carolina Chord Company, a barbershop chorus in Charlotte, N.C. has assisted as well. This performance is just another item he can scratch off his bucket list.

Wesley Rester (The Man)-This marks Wesley's 13th season with the FSLT and his 65th show. Usually found in the Bat-cave (sound/light booth), or backstage running around like a chicken with his head cut off; Wesley returns to the stage in "Web of Murder. Wesley would like to dedicate his performance in this show to the memory of his longtime friend and mentor James Rogers.

The cast and crew of "Web of Murder" dedicate this show to the memory of long time FSLT friend and husband of Carole Rogers, James Rogers.

Director's Note: I'm very grateful to be given the chance to direct another show at the Fort Smith Little Theatre. Once again I find myself amazed by the outstanding talent and commitment that we have at FSLT. A large THANK YOU to the wonderful cast and crew for bringing "Web of Murder" to life and for all your hard work and dedication. You have all made my job as director a true delight. —Rikkee Workman

Cast Bios:

Kiane French (Minerva)-I have been involved in many productions over the years, mainly in Oklahoma City and Honolulu, but none have been more enjoyable than the ones I have had the privilege to be a part of here at FSLT! "Trip to Bountiful" and now "Web of Murder" are definitely at the top of my favorites' list. Rikkee, thank you for giving me the opportunity to work with such a fabulous cast and crew. I also thank my family, friends, and God for their love and support.

Melissa Vitale (Stefanie)-"I'm back again for more fun on the FSLT stage! Many thanks to my incredible husband, David, for helping me learn lines, cooking dinner while I was at rehearsal, and for putting up with my love of performing. I love you, David! Many apologies to the wonderful cast and crew who put up with me and my stinky running clothes at rehearsal because I am in training for my first half marathon on April 29, 2012."

Micki Voelkel (Nora)- is happy to return to the stage at FSLT after a break of a few years. Audiences may remember her from A Christmas Story, Moonlight and Magnolias, Into the Woods, Enchanted April, Last Night of Ballyhoo, and The Importance of Being Earnest among others. She is usually cast as the goofy, nasty, or crazy one. Here she is only poor, old, long-suffering Nora the housekeeper.

Summer Ferguson (Mary) - Summer has her Bachelor's Degree in Theatre- Acting/Directing from the University of Arkansas Fort Smith. This is her third show with the FSLT. Her previous roles include Nancy in Gaslight and Thelma in A Trip to Bountiful. She would like to thank her family and friends for all their love and support. A very happy birthday to her father Tracy Ferguson who turned 50!

Nicole Bostick (Belle)- Nicole Bostick is a local teacher. She has been performing on stage since the 4th grade. She is a graduate of the University of Arkansas Fort Smith campus, where she enjoyed performing with her peers. "Web of Murder" makes her sixth show with the Fort Smith Little Theatre. She wants to thank her friends and family for always being supportive. She hopes that you enjoy the show and wants to thank you for indulging yourself in her passion.
