Tonight's production of THE LITTLE FOXES has evolved without the services of a formal director. The undertaking represents a cooperative effort of the cast.

Lighting is under the direction of Ben Pollock.

The title of the play is derived from a passage in the second chapter of The Song of Solomon:

For, lo, the winter is past, the rain is over and gone;
The flowers appear on the earth; the time of the singing of birds is come, and the voice of the turtle is heard in our land;

The fig tree putteth forth her green figs, and the vines with the tender grapes give a good smell.

. . . . .
Let us catch the foxes, the little foxes, that spoil the vines: for our vines have tender grapes.
