

PRODUCTION STAFF

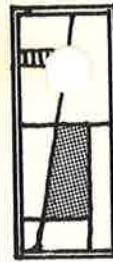

Producers Doug Davenport, Jr., Tom Oliver
 Lights and Sound Bob Davenport
 Props and Set Wilma Adams, Betty Jo Wery, Doris Tressler
 Publicity Jerry Davis
 Wardrobe Katherine Mendel, Polly Lowrey
 Makeup Connie Freeman, Joan Stone, Janie Glover
 Box Office Ed Drimmel, Payne Morrow
 Hospitality Dorothy Miller, Meredith Wilcox,
 Catherine Wanslow, Betty Oliver
 House John Woods, Bill Center, Payne Morrow
 Burley Johnston, Bob Cutting Dan Roebuck,
 Jim Cooper, Ben Pollock, Ernest Mendel,
 Selby Hauptert
 Program Bill Center

WE THANK YOU !

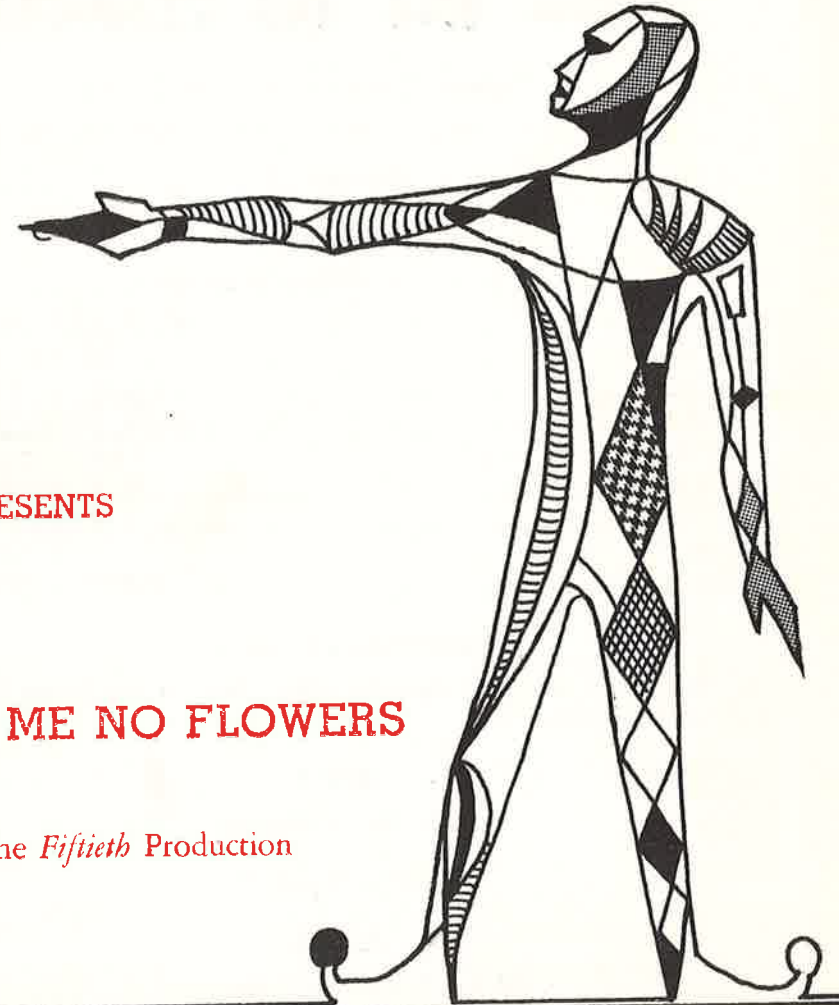

Calvert-McBride Printing Co.	KFPW Radio
Arcade Furniture Store	KFSA Television
Southwestern Publishing Co.	Boston Store
KFSA Radio	KWHN Radio
Johnston's Quality Flowers	Dr. Art Martin
Morrow & Son Office Supply Co.	Mrs. Lee G. Sims
Arkholia Sand & Gravel Co.	Mrs. C. E. Plunkett
Rev. John E. Shoemaker	Mrs. Louis Kasten
Mrs. Bill Center	Terry Davenport
Mrs. Jack Wilcox

COMING SOON !

The most ambitious undertaking the Little Theatre has attempted in this playhouse thus far will soon be going into rehearsal. This is the production of the smash hit New York musical, "Little Mary Sunshine." This delightful show, which entertained New Yorkers for over two years and which just closed its Manhattan run last September, is scheduled as the late summer production at the LT Playhouse. Mrs. Preston Lowrey, director of our highly successful melodramas the past three summers, will be in charge of directing this musical hit. The LT Board of Directors urges all those people who might be interested in working on this summer production to watch the newspapers for announcements concerning tryouts and rehearsals. Requiring singers, dancers, actors, and backstage workers, "Little Mary Sunshine" will indeed be a community effort for your community theatre. You will most certainly want to mark your calendar for your entire family to be in attendance at the big show of the year for Fort Smith theatre goers!

FORT SMITH LITTLE THEATRE

PRESENTS

SEND ME NO FLOWERS

The Fiftieth Production

March 26 thru March 30
8:15 P. M.

1963

OUR SIXTEENTH SEASON

FORT SMITH LITTLE THEATRE

Proudly Presents

OUR GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY PRODUCTION

"Send Me No Flowers"

By Norman Barasch and Carroll Moore

Presented by special arrangements with Samuel French, Inc.

Directed by

ANN SIMS

Cast in order of their appearance

JUDY KIMBALL CAROLYN HOOTEN
GEORGE KIMBALL DAN SKELTON
VITO BOBBY BRITTON
BERT POWER JAMES L. UNDERWOOD
DOCTOR MORRISSEY TED FELLINGER
ARNOLD NASH DAN CRAWFORD
MR. AKINS BRAD KIDDER
BABY
MISS MASON GINGER LANGSTON

SYNOPSIS OF SCENES

The entire action of the play takes place in the living room of the Kimball home.

ACT I

Late Friday Morning

INTERMISSION

ACT II

Scene 1: Two Days Later

Scene 2: The Following Morning

INTERMISSION

ACT III

One Half Hour Later

ABOUT THE CAST

New Faces

DAN SKELTON teaches English at Northside High School but that's not all! He was co-director of the Northside presentation of "Oklahoma!" last year and during his college days at Arkansas State Teacher College maintained an active theatre schedule. His dramatic contributions included roles in "A Man Called Peter," "Oedipus Rex," "Twelve Angry Men," and "The Book of Job."

Mother of four boys, hairdresser, fashion commentator — it could be none other than GINGER (MRS. D. M.) LANGSTON. Even though Ginger is a Van Burenite, she's just as well-known in Fort Smith and over the state. We're sure you'll find her amusing in her first appearance on the LT stage.

CAROLYN (MRS. RAY) HOOTEN moved to Fort Smith seven years ago from Little Rock and we're just now getting her to the Little Theatre. Carolyn believes in giving her most to any job she tackles and she's done it with her role as Judy Kimball.

All the way from Rome (Georgia, that is!) comes JAMES UNDERWOOD. Brought to Fort Smith through the courtesy of Uncle Sam, Jim is a First Lieutenant and is Post Claims Officer at Fort Chaffee. This is his first appearance on stage.

BOBBY BRITTON is a junior at Northside High School and another newcomer to Little Theatre work. However, he has an impressive record of high school dramatics, including a role in the recent production of "South Pacific."

Welcome Back!

"Our regular viewers," as they say on TV, will recognize Dan Crawford, Ted Fellinginger and Brad Kidder. But for newcomers, a short word of introduction:

DAN CRAWFORD, announcer for radio station KFPW, has appeared in four Little Theatre productions. His most recent endeavor was "Late Love."

TED FELLINGER started his Little Theatre activities several years ago with "Lo and Behold." His latest appearance was in "The Rainmaker" in the fall of 1962.

BRAD KIDDER, in addition to his work on stage, has served in many capacities backstage. All in all, his experience sheet gives a well-rounded picture of Little Theatre activities. His most recent on-stage contribution was in "Sorry, Wrong Number."

BOARD OF DIRECTORS FORT SMITH LITTLE THEATRE 1963

Ed Drimmel, President	Connie Freeman, Assistant Treasurer	Doug Davenport
Payne Morrow, Vice-President	John D. Woods	Polly Lowrey
Eugenia Swearingen, Treasurer	John Swofford	Ted Miller
Carla Mitchell, Secretary	Bob H. Davenport	Lucy Warner Waddy
	Imogene Kropp	Jerry Davis
	Tom Oliver	Janie Glover
	Ann Sims	Mary Julia Head
		Joan Stone