TALLEY'S FOLLY

"It is called this man's or that man's 'folly' and the name of the foolish builder is thus kept alive."

*-- Richard Chenevix Trench
English poet and writer,
1807-1886*

CAST

MATT FRIEDMAN Ray Coleman
SALLY TALLEY Paula Sharum

The action in the play takes place inside an abandoned boathouse on the Talley family estate, located just across the river from Lebanon, Missouri.

It is the evening of July 4th, 1944.

This is a time of great uncertainty for the country. World War II had ended the depression by creating millions of new jobs, while at the same time removing many thousands of able-bodied men from the work force. Now that the boys are about to come home and the machineries of war seem about to shut down, people are worrying about what is going to happen to the economy. The memories of breadlines and homeless families are still fresh in many minds.

THIS IS A FULL-LENGTH PLAY IN ONE ACT AND IS PERFORMED WITHOUT AN INTERMISSION.

Please no food or drink in the auditorium. For the safety and consideration of our audience and actors, no flash photography is allowed during a performance. Patrons are welcome to visit with members of the cast and crew in the green room after the show.
