

FRIENDS ARE WELCOME TO GREET THE CAST BACKSTAGE
AFTER THE PERFORMANCE

ABOUT THE CAST

BOB HUGHART - Bob trained in theatre at the University of Arkansas and is well known to the Ft. Smith stage. This is his first performance after a brief absence. He still remains "solo"!

LISA LUNNEY - Miss Lisa was introduced to the FSLT in "The Mad Woman of Chaillot" as Irma. She has since portrayed characters in "Mary, Mary," "Impromptu" and "Cryano de Bergerac".

SCOTT YORK - "Wee Johnnie" has accumulated a long list of acting credits in his high school productions. He also portrayed a Yankee soldier in "The Blue and The Gray". He hopes to continue at FSLT and to pursue a career in radio broadcasting.

KELLEY SHEPPARD - Seasoned is the proper word for this talented actor, who has appeared on the FSLT and Westark stages. He was honored this year at the American Community Theatre Festival, receiving an acting award for his role in the FSLT entry "Impromptu".

JEFF CAUDLE - This "Lion" has a heart of gold, performing in the Red Stocking Revue every year since 1978. Jeff not only acts, he sings.....capturing everyones applause in a scene from "The King And I" during "An Evening With Rogers And Hammerstein". His wife, Sharon, is handy with needle and thread.

PAT BISSELL - Pat is also making her debut on the FSLT stage. She has an active background in community theatre. Her son dances with the American Ballet and her daughter has followed "mummies" footsteps into show biz.

ROD HENLY - During his debut at FSLT in "Philadelphia Story", Rod was fatally bitten by the acting bug, and he hasn't been able to get off the stage yet!
