

Welcome to the Fort Smith Little Theatre's production of A COMPANY OF WAYWARD SAINTS. We sincerely hope that you will enjoy tonight's performance and that you will tell your friends.

The play you are about to see is quite an unusual one, an allegory—a story in which people, things and happenings have another meaning, often a moral as in a fable. In short, this is a play about relationships: God's, man's, our own.

To achieve such a purpose, I knew that I would have to assemble the finest actors and actresses I could find. I hope you will agree with me. I am very grateful to them and to the crews for their thoughtful dedication and extremely hard work. This was not a project for the fainthearted. They have been far better to work with than I ever imagined.

So now, sit back and relax, and don't worry, we're not going to blow up the auditorium. Just enjoy "La Compagnie de Santi Ostinati" make their magic for you.

*Sincerely,
Lindy Cotner*

the Fort Smith Little Theatre
presents

A COMPANY OF WAYWARD SAINTS

by George Herman

directed by
Lindy Cotner

produced by Katy Boulden

produced by special arrangement with Samuel French, Inc.

The play takes place anytime at anyplace of departure or arrival.

Prologue

Act I

Act II

There will be an intermission between the acts.

A COMPANY OF WAYWARD SAINTS

cast in order of appearance

Scapino, the Acrobat. . . . . Vern McKinney Pantalone, the Old Man. . . . . Orin Frank Colombine, the Nag. . . . . Carolyn Heiss Harlequin, the manager. . . . . Bob Hughart Tristano, the Lover. . . . . Rod Henley Dottore, the Learned. . . . . Ray Moore
Ruffiana, the Tart. . . . . Paula Sharum
Isabella, the Sweetheart. . . . . Sally Wahl Capitano, the Warrior. . . . . Brad Kidder

the production crew

Director. . . . . Lindy Cotner
Producer . . . . . Katy Boulden
Technical Director. . . . . Bob Wanslow
Sets. . . . . Lura Elliston, David Beckman, Larry Lynn, Tommy Fowler, Celia Waddell, Jim Sartin,
Dave Walters
Lights and Sound . . . . . Bob Perry, Rob Wiles, Charlie Long, Ken Hope
Properties . . . . . Lillie Aguilar, Colleen Newbold, Rhonda Fronk,
Jim Baker
Costumes. . . . . Kay Lynn,
Les Johnson, Orin Frank
Prompter . . . . . Lura Elliston
Make-up . . . . . June McKinney
Original Music . . . . . Wolf Gurlky
Publicity . . . . . Ray Coleman
Dave Stambaugh, Jay Burk
Special Effects. . . . . Art Corey,
Dave Stambaugh
Stage Manager . . . . . Herb Lampole