

THAT STRANGE OPERATION

by Douglas C. Jones

THAT STRANGE OPERATION

or

"How what is done now by many for hygienic reasons began for a few as something else"

by

Douglas C. Jones

Cast

GodGreg Davis
Abram/AbrahamCarl McCauley
Sarai/SarahClara Jane Rubarth

with hymns and spirituals sung by

The Sistahs

Regina Shoate
Gloria Moore
Genine Perez
Madelyn Brown
Renee Bell
Vicki Moton
Beverly Wells

Crew

DirectorKaty Boulden
ProducerMichael Newcity
Lights/SoundJim Moody

with special thanks to Rose Bethell

Douglas C. Jones was prompted to write this one act play after reading and re-reading a Pulitzer Prize winning book by Jack Miles, entitled God: A Biography. This work treats the Old Testament God as a literary figure and is a serious work but is not void of humor. We are grateful to Doug Jones for allowing us to perform this drama for the first time.