DIRECTOR'S NOTE

After directing "Happily Every After" in 2019, the writings of Mark Dunn have become one of my favorites. His stories with unique characters set in interesting situations that makes one laugh, smile, and cry are a perfect mix for an amazing theatrical experience. So, I am thrilled to be back in the director's chair, to open FSLT's 2020 Season with another Mark Dunn comedy. I am thankful that I have gotten to work with such an amazing cast and crew - now, I hope you enjoy their hard work!

SOME MILD LANGUAGE AND ADULT INNUENDOS

CAST BIOS

- ~ Playing Arpege is AARON RAY who started his relationship with FSLT in 2008. Since then, he's been in numerous plays including "Happily Ever After" and "The Graduate". He plans on doing plays for as long as his beautiful wife will let him.
- ~ Playing Trudy is ANGELA COVEY who has been involved with FSLT since 1975. She said it before, but this really is her swan song. She feels that this is a great role to take her final bow on stage. From now on, she will be sitting in the audience rooting for all the talented young folks that tread the boards down here.
- ~ Playing Dowd is BRANDON BOLIN who has been acting at FSLT since 2009. His favorite roles in that time have been The Cowardly Lion, Don Lockwood, Mr. Collins, and Barnette Lloyd. After a brief hiatus from acting, and after just having made his directorial debut with "Miracle on 34th Street", he has so enjoyed getting to be back on stage, and in a production with such amazingly talented people, especially his wife (their first time together onstage since marrying last May)...
- ~ Playing Mamie is CAROLE ROGERS who is celebrating adding another wonderful year at FSLT. She is recently known for her roles in "The Games Afoot" and "Calendar Girls", as well as directing FSLT musicals "The Secret Garden" and "Disney's Beauty and the Beast". She now takes the stage as a mean-spirited yet lovable spit-fire who is sure to make you giggle one phrase at a time.
- ~ Playing Charlie is HUNTER SEEGERS who is a theatre student at UAFS. He made his debut at FSLT last year as Billy Bibbit in "One Flew Over The Cuckoo's Nest", and is now excited to be a part of this fantastic production.
- ~ Playing Patty is JAMIE LAMBDIN-BOLIN who loves working with director Eric Wells because he almost always lets her eat on stage. Her recent appearances have been as Elaine in "The Graduate" and as Gwenjane in "Happily Ever After". She now takes the stage in this wonderful show with these talented individuals, particularly her husband. (She was promised that there would be cake and coffee. But so far, she hasn't found any. Please DO NOT eat during the show because if you do, she will find you and steal your snack. She hopes that you will enjoy this production, and that you will notice how her husband has a nicely shaped head for being bald.)
- ~ Playing Corinne is MEREDITH RICE who takes the stage in her second production at FSLT after making her debut as a Silly Girl in "Disney's Beauty and the Beast". She is very excited to grow as an actress with this character. But she is even more grateful to be sharing the stage with such talented people.
- ~ Playing Mayvonne is MICKI VOELKEL who has been playing eccentric, difficult, older women at FSLT since long before she was actually an eccentric, difficult, older woman. She finds it refreshing to play a genuinely nice and warm human being like Mayvonne. Some of her memorable roles at FSLT have been Mrs. Bennett in "Pride and Prejudice", Mrs. Loomis in "Splendor in the Grass", Adelle in "Happily Ever After", and Corpse on the Stairs in "Night of the Living Dead".
- ~ Playing Flossie is RIKKEE WORKMAN-BLACK who has been struggling NOT to bring the country-girl accent home from rehearsal, while doing her best NOT to laugh her way through the production. She is a frequent FSLT director and actress. Her most recent roles include Doris Walker in "Miracle on 34th Street" and Sylvie in "The Odd Couple - Female Version".
- ~ Playing Valerie is TINA DALE who has been having a blast at FSLT since 2010. Her favorite roles have probably been Ms. Shellhammer in "Miracle on 34th Street", Birdie in "The Little Foxes", and Olive Braddock in "The Graduate".

FSLT's 2020 Season is dedicated to honor the memory of KATY BOULDEN.
