THE BIOS

ERIC WELLS (Director) - Being onstage has always been his first love in the arts, but he is happily discovering that the call of the director's chair is a close second. With no plans to direct until he finished his graduate studies, Eric was hoping to do limited theatre work. However, having found the script of this play, he was grinning from ear-to-ear when he first read it. He couldn't wipe the smile off his face, and knew that he had to bring this hilarious farce to life. So, he is now thrilled to be opening FSLT's 2019 season with HAPPILY EVER AFTER. Rehearsals have been a hoot - filled with laughter and giggles from day one. The charming script and unique characters that anyone can relate to makes for a great story with plenty of laughs. He is thankful to be able to work with a "dream team" of cast and crew, and hopes that you enjoy this show as much as he has enjoyed putting it together for you.

HALL, JOHN (Bruce) - He is an actor, philosopher, and lover of opera. A frequent FSLT performer, John comes to the stage this time as Pastor Bruce Puff - a devout man of the cloth, and the voice of reason amidst the chaos. But is there more to Bruce than meets the eye?

HARVEY JR., NOEL (Chester) - Although it has been quite a few years since his portrayal of 'Pa Ingalls' in A Laura Ingalls Wilder Christmas, Noel is truly excited to be back on stage here at the Little Theatre. He fell into theatre pretty much by accident, but has really enjoyed that accident over the years. With twenty plus shows under his belt, he is looking forward to many more in the years to come.

HENDERSON, MORGAN (Renee) - She is honored to make her theatre debut at FSLT with such an amazing cast and crew. Playing a quirky maid-of-honor, she spends her time searching through the medicine cabinet in her purse and vowing to make her future bright (no matter what the cost). Morgan is sure that these lively characters will keep you in stitches!

HUNTINGTON, TYLER (Cash) - After a brief hiatus, Tyler returns to the FSLT stage as Francie's lovable, sassy brother. Audiences may remember him as 'Robert Ferrars' in Sense and Sensibility. Tyler has enjoyed rehearsing alongside his friends, and he can't wait for audiences to laugh along with him throughout the show.

LAMBDIN, JAMIE (Gwenjane) - Thankful to be onstage again at FSLT as an assistant caterer this time, she is hoping that audiences may recall her performance as 'Jo' in Little Women or as 'Poppy' in Noises Off. The cast has been a blessing to work with, and this show is already one of her favorites! Jamie is currently counting down to her own wedding day, and what better way to prepare than being in a wedding comedy?!

MARKS, RANDALL (Gert) - Randall "The Entertainer" Marks hits the FSLT stage for a second time. His FSLT debut was with Night of the Living Dead. This time around, he's swapping genres to play the mysterious love interest, Gert. Who is this dream man? Is he everything Francie has thought him to be?

RAY, AARON (Kyle) - He has crawled out from under his rock to play the poor groom who is caught in a love triangle. Something Aaron is not familiar with at all. Who will you root for - the groom or the mysterious other man...?

ROBINSON, SUMMER (Polly) - She is so happy to be back on stage at FSLT playing a kooky caterer this time, who will be with you every step of the way through this show. As she channels her Texan roots, Summer hopes that you're ready to expand your vocabulary and laugh until you cry!

VOELKEL, MICKI (Adelle) - She is excited to be back on stage channeling her inner Julia Sugarbaker, as the determined mother-of-the-bride. This is her third outing playing Victoria's onstage mother after Splendor in the Grass and Pride & Prejudice. Micki is an FSLT veteran most recently seen as 'Cora' in Calendar Girls and 'Corpse on Stairs' in Night of the Living Dead.

WALDEN, VICTORIA (Francie) - She is no stranger to the stage having been in many plays including Splendor in the Grass, Leading Ladies, The Odd Couple, and such. This romantic comedy will leave you laughing in tears as Victoria plays a bride who can't decide whom to marry on her own wedding day!
