Director's Note

*It has been an absolute joy bringing one of my favorite Christmas movies to the stage alongside this brilliant cast and crew who deserve more accolades than space will permit me. As a new director, their hard work, good attitudes, and encouragement have meant a great deal. I hope that their performance serves as an enjoyable way to begin your holiday festivities, and may Kris's words from the movie linger for us all:
"Christmas is a state of mind."*
