An Old Time Radio Christmas II

Picture if you will, a bustling winter day; the cold, crisp air; snow billowing about outside; a Christmas tree fully decorated with lights, garland, and ornaments; a family nestled together – warm and safe – around the radio in their home, listening to the Christmas songs we all know and love. These are the images An Old Time Radio Christmas II will conjure.

The story unfolds as a 1970s radio station broadcasts a nostalgic program recreating the 1950s era when many of America's most popular Christmas songs were created and enjoyed.

After a three-year hiatus, Jill Moody-Ledbetter is back in the director's chair to bring us this merry, family-friendly, fun-filled show packed with songs, commercials, comedy readings, and Christmas stories of a much simpler time. This show will include several children participating as cast members, as well as some FSLT veterans amidst a number of other very talented actors and actresses.

Grab your friends and family and join us for a very special night full of merriment, laughter, and music, which will be sure to leave you in the Christmas spirit with peace, love, and joy! An Old Time Radio Christmas II performances are scheduled for Thursday, December 8th through Saturday, December 10th. Show time is 7:30 p.m. and the doors will open at 6:45 p.m. No reservations required, first-come-first-serve seating, and tickets are $7 at the door. Let's head back to the good ole days for some old-fashioned Christmas joy!
