

DIRECTOR'S NOTES

I am hopeful that you will enjoy our presentation of Tennessee William's semi-autobiographical work.

I would like to dedicate this production to my Mother who always supported my work in the theatre. To my wife, and children who had to put up with me being at rehearsals.

I want to thank the following people: FSLT Production Committee, FSLT Board of Directors, Frank Petrilli, and most of all my all-star Cast and Crew who made this one of the most enjoyable experiences in my directing career.

CAST BIOS

• Aaron Ray is a recent addition to the FSLT family. He continues to delight our audiences in such productions as: Murder of Scarecrows; The Laramie Project; and Father of the Bride.

• Nancy Moon has graced our theatre both on-stage and off-stage. Her resume is extensive, some of her favorite roles include: Maggie in Cat On A Hot Tin Roof, and Stella in A Street Car Named Desire.

• LaRae Seay has been performing at FSLT for five years. Her most recent role was as Ellie Banks in Father of the Bride where she actually played Aaron Ray's mother. Her favorite role however, is being mother to her two rambunctious boys, Justin and Austin.

• Brenden Dahle is also a recent addition to the FSLT family, and has been a regular cast member in some of our most recent productions including: A Murder of Scarecrows, The Laramie Project, Father of the Bride, and Moonlight & Magnolias.
